
menu hidden by Jnews Slider

Posted by MILORD65 - 2009/03/03 16:09

Hello

I bought the component Ari Jnews Slider today. It works well but there is however an important problem: the slider appears in front of sub items of my moomenu and hides them. How is that the menu is in front of when we consult it ? Please help me.

Look at my site: www.tostamicale.com

Excuses me for my english but I'm French.

Thanks for any help.

Hello,

It seems that this problem appears only in IE browser. We are investigating this issue and inform you about result.

THANK YOU FOR THE SOLUTION:

It was necessary to put in my templates css:

#ol-container-bodyr
{
position: relative;
z-index: -1;
}
```

The component works very well :) after adding the CSS rule. Now, I can use the component. Thanks for your Availability and your efficiency.
