
Fatal Error arijnewsslider on the right side

Posted by mniederm - 2009/01/04 10:51

Hi,

I want to use the ARIJNewsslider on the right side of my page to show information. I made a ARISmartContent Modul and when I activate it I get a Fatal error by calling the page www.aktionsfinder.at.

Please have a look on the screenshot which is attached and the error message.

Fatal error: Cannot redeclare f4f2d422e() (previously declared in /home/aktionsf/public_html/aktionsfinder/modules/mod_arismartcontent/mod_arismartcontent.php(18) : eval()'d code:1) in /home/aktionsf/public_html/aktionsfinder/modules/mod_arismartcontent/mod_arismartcontent.php(18) : eval()'d code on line 1

best regards
Michael

It looks like width value you set for scroller is too big. Could you please try making it less?

Or give us access to your Joomla! backend and we will try adjusting this for you (please send us credentials by email).

We have fixed the issue. It was not related to our extension itself. Ja_purity template you are using contains the following CSS:

div div div {
background:transparent none repeat scroll 0 0;
float:none;
margin:0;
padding:0;
width:99%;
}
```

This overrides correct styles for News Scroller and makes it displaying incorrectly.

You can download the latest version in member area.

ARI Soft
