Thankyou for this extension.

I'd like to understand why submenu doesn't appear correctly in the horizontal menu, when I open the homepage in a reduced window (Firefox, Chrome) or on a mobile device.

The link to my site:

www.liceoaselli.gov.it

Can you help me?

Thanks

Could you send a screenshot where we can see the problem?

Here are the screen shots

The last one (also in the attached file) shows an uncomplete submenu

The screen shot shows the problem (the submenu is uncomplete)

The menu is hidden according to site template styles for the selected module position when browser is resized. You can see on the screenshot below how it looks for us:

Ok. But when I click on the menu-button

main menu items appear and when I click on them, the submenu items appear only partially, as shown in a previous message
