
Menu issue with IE11

Posted by dollemancom - 2014/12/23 14:47

Hi,

On my website www.wkvreflex.nl the sub-menus don't work, only when i refresh once the appear.
With Chrome it work's fine.

Hello,

We have checked it in IE 11 and sub-menus are shown fine for us.

Very strange, I and a lot of visitors have the same problem.
I also read this issue often on this forum.

Ik go find another menu for my site.

with kindley regards,

Unfortunately we can't reproduce the problem (probably you don't describe all required steps).

We can recommend to check browser's error console. It can contains javascript which can help to investigate the problem. It can be a conflict with a 3rd party extension.
