Hello,

Thanks for your interest in ARI Quiz. Regarding to your questions:

1) No, currently the component contains English, Russian and German translations. Most probably French and Dutch translations will be available soon, but you can easy create your own translation in 'Languages' and 'Languages Frontend' section on backend of the component.

2) Could you explain your question? Registered users can view their results and admin can view results of all users on backend.

3) You can specify user group, which will have access to quiz, for each quiz, but currently this possibility don't available for quiz category. We can't say anything about 'JoomSuite Member' because it commercial component and we don't have it for investigating purposes.

Regards,
ARI Soft
