
Possible to remove / edit \"choice 1, 2 3 etc\"

Posted by ivanjones - 2008/11/09 17:19

Is it possible to remove or edit the "Choice" text that appears adjacent to each multiple choice option?

It seems superfluous, and I would rather just have the radio button, or A,B,C etc.

Thanks

This message can be easy changed by editing front-end messages: please go Components->ARI Quiz->Languages Frontend. For appropriate language change "Choice label" value in labels section.

Re:Remove / edit \"choice 1, 2 3 etc\" - BUG

I have attempted to do what you suggested.

First, I edited the choice label by deleting it, then saving. I then clicked back on to the Labels tab, and found that the Choice text had reappeared.

I tried again, this time substituting a 'null' for a space, and saved again. This time when I rechecked, the Choice was still blank - see screenshot.

However, when re-entering the quiz, the 'Choice' labels are still there.

Please advise.

Yes, we have tried and cannot reproduce this. Also please make sure that you have selected the appropriate language to be default. Have you done so?

Also could you please try to reproduce this on our demo site. It's difficult to investigate your problem without looking at your system.

I've tried to reproduce on in your demo quiz area. I'm sure its just a temporary glitch, however the demo quiz seems to be out of action at the moment?

Could you please try on demo2.ari-soft.com? It uses Joomla! 1.5.

Our first demo is experiencing temporary technical problems.

Yes, the problem reproduces in your test environment(demo2.ari-soft.com).

I've set Choice in Language Frontend to 'Space'. (Setting to Null does not work - this could be an additional bug?)

The Demo Quiz still shows "Choice 1", "Choice 2" etc

As we already asked you you need to make sure you selected appropriate language as default. Please refer to screenshot. So this is not a bug and you can easy change this message. You can check this on demo.
