hi all

I am just considering buying flipbook and I have a couple of questions before buying!

I was wondering if There is any sound with the component? If it did it would Seal off a perfect product for my websites.

Please could somebodytell me if there is anyway to dictate the size of each page? Does it depend on my template or does flipbook have its own page width restrictions?

Thanks

Keith

Hello,

Thank you for your interest in our extension. Regarding your questions:

1. The extension shows Joomla! articles in book view and you can use Flash objects or plugins for embedding audio/video files into an articles.

2. The extension provides ability to set width and height of the whole book. Default theme doesn't have any limitation for width and height. Moleskin theme uses predefined width and height.
